Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

All visitors to our beautiful town of Eureka Springs are welcome to visit our historic Saint Elizabeth of Hungary Church, and to pray and worship with us. If you are Catholic, and have recently received the Sacrament of Reconciliation, you are also invited to share in the Holy Eucharist. If you are not a practicing Catholic, we invite you to come forward with arms crossed over your chest to receive a sacramental blessing. Pray that we all continue to grow together into the body of Christ, to which the Lord calls us.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Fr. John Anglin is our Priest this weekend from Unbound. Throughout most of Fr. John's 45 years as a priest, he has worked with the poor and marginalized. Fr. John served as a high school religion teacher in Boston and in churches in New York City, Buffalo and New Jersey. He spent 3 years as a missionary in Bolivia where he worked in a rural parish in the Andes that included outreach to nearby poor villages. He witnessed extraordinary faith, a desire to work hard, a commitment to family and a sense of community. Currently working with the Franciscan Ministry of the Word, he preaches at missions and retreats. Through his blog, The Wandering Friar, he chronicles his travels, reflects on current events, and speaks about the poor by challenging his readers with the question, "Have you ever walked in their shoes?"

March for Life

On behalf of Arkansas Right to Life, the Respect Life Office invites everyone to participate in the 44th annual March for Life at the State Capitol in downtown Little Rock. This rally against the grave evil of abortion will be held on January 16, 2022 beginning at 2:00pm, after the Mass for Life. The staging area is behind the Capitol building on W. Capitol St., between Battery & Wolfe Sts. For more information, please contact Arkansas Right to Life at 501-663-4237 or email artl@artl.org.

REVELATION OF GOD'S PRESENCE

Today's first reading from Isaiah arises out of the ordeal of the people of Jerusalem and Judea as they anticipate the end of seventy years of exile in Babylon. Their sufferings and their oppression will end, and they are promised joy like that of a great wedding upon returning to their homeland. Although this passage is probably set in the early sixth century B.C., it is free of historical particulars. Accordingly, the Church has understood its imagery universally, as it proclaims God's promise of healing, hope, and happiness for all peoples, in this world and in the next. When read against this background, the story of Jesus' turning water into wine at the wedding at Cana becomes a revelation of God's presence in the person of Jesus, making these promises real for us in the here and now, in the transformation of our own lives.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Almighty ever-living God,
who govern all things,
both in heaven and on earth,
mercifully hear the pleading of your people
and bestow your peace on our times.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

What can I do to help to bring about God's peace?
