Another huge thank you to Ted Meyer and Mike Godfrey for the really nice rope surround of the mural in the Parish Hall. It really finished off the work of art.

EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Subscribe to Arkansas Catholic

You might have overheard this conversation in our parish. One person asks, "How did you know that?" The other person replies, "I read it in Arkansas Catholic." Aid to the Church in

Central & Eastern Europe

Thank you for your generous contributions last week to the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe! As a parish we collected money to restore the Church and build the future in more than 25 countries. If you missed the collection, it's not too late to give. Visit www.usccb.org/ccee.

WE ARE KNOWN BY OUR FRUIT

This week, Jesus tells us that we must examine our own inner selves, our attitudes and dispositions, virtues and faults, rather than judging others. What is in our hearts comes out in what and how we speak. If our hearts are filled with kindness and compassion, those qualities will be evident in our speaking, just as beautiful, wholesome fruit comes only from healthy trees. And vice-versa. The Wisdom writer Sirach in the first reading agrees with this concept—that we will be judged by our words. Paul reminds us that the reward of discipleship is eternal life. Today's psalm of thanksgiving and praise reminds us of God's kindness and faithfulness, which we are to emulate in our thoughts, words, and deeds. We are known, each of us, by our own fruit.

“Every tree is known by its own fruit. For people do not pick figs from thorn bushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles.”

THE DIFFERENCE

The difference between perseverance and obstinacy is that one often comes from a strong will, and the other from a strong won't.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Grant us, O Lord, we pray, that the course of our world
may be directed by your peaceful rule and that your Church may rejoice, untroubled in her devotion.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How can I help bring about God's peaceful reign?
