Invest in the Future of Catholic Children

Cost is a challenge to hundreds of families who can't afford a Catholic education for their child. Parish subsidies, fundraising, and foundations provide funds for financial assistance, but not enough. You can help by giving to the Arkansas Catholic Schools Scholarship Fund. Give at: www.givecentral.org/arkansas/ To learn more, contact the Office of Catholic Schools at 501-664-0340, email molberts@dolr.org or visit dolr.org/schools/scholarship-appeal. Invest in the future Continue the tradition.

Catechetical Sunday

Catechetical Sunday allows parishes to recognize and thank those who give generously of their time and gifts in the work of catechesis. The special collection taken up on September 18th and 19th helps to fund those catechetical programs in Arkansas. It is divided equally between the local parish religious education program and the diocese's Office of Faith Formation. For more information, contact Dianne Brady, director of the diocesan Stewardship and Development Office, at (501) 664-0340.

Diocesan Directory

The 2022 Diocese of Little Rock Directory is coming soon. It is an invaluable resource to keep in your house or car to find Mass times for another parish or to call or e-mail a parish, priest, deacon or religious in the diocese. It costs only $15, which includes shipping. Send your check or money order to Directory, Arkansas Catholic, P.O. Box 7417, Little Rock, AR 72217. Directories will be shipped in October.

Jesus rebuked Peter: "Get behind me, Satan!"

New Members Move to Formation House

We welcome three new seminarians who have joined the Diocese of Little Rock to begin their discernment as priests. They are Pedro Alvarez, Kevin Medina and Joshua Osborne.

Catholic Campus Ministry

Coming to Fayetteville for the Football game? Walk over to St. Thomas Aquinas after the game for a Vigil Mass! A Vigil Mass will be offered on Saturday, September 18th at 7:00pm.

STEWARDSHIP

Relief for Haiti

Bishop Anthony B. Taylor asked parishes to take up a 2nd collection to support recovery efforts in Haiti. The country suffered an earthquake Aug. 14th followed by two tropical storms. At least 2,200 people have died and hundreds more were severely injured. All donations will be sent to Catholic Relief Services, which has been working in Haiti since 1954.

"Catholic Relief Services has ramped up its emergency relief and recovery efforts to help the Haitian people deal with their immediate needs for potable water, food, emergency shelter, sanitation and hygiene supplies," the bishop wrote in a letter read at Masses beginning Aug. 21-22.

"Eventually, they will transition to a recovery program in Haiti to help repair and rebuild homes and the damaged water infrastructure. They will also train and invest in restoring livelihood activities to enable the Haitian people to earn income to support themselves and their families."

In addition to donating during Mass, online donations can be made at <https://bit.ly/haitirelief2021>.

IT'S ALL ABOUT CONTROL

From toddlerhood to old age, we grow in mastery of our own lives, our bodies, and our destiny. This mastery is hard won, and we don't let go of autonomy easily. Much of this self-mastery involves the avoidance of pain or discomfort, so when we hear things like "take up your cross" and "lose your life," we tend to resist the message.

James says that faith without works is dead. Ouch! That is really a direct message! One way to look at this, as well as the part about losing our life to find it, is that faith is a process of more and more openness to God's direction of our lives. It is very hard for us to give up control, but perhaps what we are being asked to do is not to become passive and babyish, but to allow God to direct where our self-mastery will lead and what it will accomplish. We are asked to relinquish the need to control the results of our efforts; to risk, as Jesus did, the loss of everything we are working to achieve. We are asked to let God take the lead and to control the results, even though we may never see those results.

FEAST OF FAITH

Offering and Intercessions

In this holy moment—with the consecrated bread and wine, the Body and Blood of Christ, upon the altar—we pray for a share in the fruits of Christ's sacrifice. We offer to God what God has given to us, and we intercede for the Church and the world. We pray for the pope and for all the bishops, and we mention the bishop of our local church by name. We pray for the clergy and for all the people of God. We pray in a special way for those who have died. And we pray for ourselves, that one day, with Mary and all the saints, we may come to that place where Jesus already reigns. These prayers of intercession, like the General Intercessions earlier in the Mass, broaden our focus and remind us that the Eucharist is offered not just for those gathered, but for the salvation of the entire world. The Eucharistic Prayer leads us from an intense focus on Christ, present in the consecrated host in the hands of the priest, to a loving sweep of prayer that embraces the world.
