TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Behold, the wages you withheld from the workers who harvested your
fields are crying aloud;
and the cries of the harvesters
have reached the ears
of the Lord of hosts.

Saturday 8:30am
Sunday
(English) 11:00am
(Spanish) 1:00pm

All visitors to our beautiful town of Eureka Springs are welcome to visit our historic Saint Elizabeth of Hungary Church, and to pray and worship with us. If you are Catholic, and have recently received the Sacrament of Reconciliation, you are also invited to share in the Holy Eucharist. If you are not a practicing Catholic, we invite you to come forward with arms crossed over your chest to receive a sacramental blessing. Pray that we all continue to grow together into the body of Christ, to which the Lord calls us.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

For Baptism, First Communion or Confirmation, contact our Parish Office, and we will point you in the right direction.

MINISTRY TO SICK & HOMEBOUND

If someone in our community is at home or in the hospital, and in need of Sacramental Care, or to be placed on our prayer list, please let us know at the Parish Office.

GIFT SHOP

St. Elizabeth Gift Shop is located behind the Church in a small building. It is generally open seven days a week (March - Oct.) and weekends through the Holiday season. We carry a large selection of medals, holy cards, rosaries, crucifixes, statuary and religious art. Come on back and check us out!

TO OUR VISITORS

Welcome to our Parish! If you wish to join our Parish family, please call the Parish Office, T-Th, at 253.2222. Registration forms are available in the narthex at both locations.

Getting Married?

Saint Elizabeth welcomes couples from all over the world who want to receive the Catholic Sacrament of Matrimony in our beautiful and historic Church. For more information, please contact the Parish Office, 479.253.2222.

A Time Capsule

The staff at Our Lady of the Holy Souls School in Little Rock discovered a time capsule from 1944 in the corner-stone of the school building, which was removed to make way for a school addition. Contents included blueprints for the original school building, a letter, a 1944 parish directory and several coins.

The time capsule is being professionally archived and preserved in partnership with UA Little Rock and the Arkansas State Archives.

One Church Campaign a “Miracle” for St. Bartholomew

St. Bartholomew Church in Little Rock is one step closer to breaking ground on a parish hall thanks to a $118,465 boost from One Church. The parish, one of just three historically Black Catholic churches in Arkansas, was chosen in the fall of 2020 to be the third to benefit from One Church, a diocesan initiative coordinated by Catholic Charities of Arkansas. One Church, which began in 2018, is meant to give Arkansans a chance to donate to the chosen mission or rural parish for 12 months to give the parish community a one-time financial boost. Previous beneficiaries were St. Luke Church in Warren and Holy Spirit Church in Hamburg.

St. Bartholomew pastor Father Leon Ngandu, SVD, said between One Church and parishioner pledges and donations, the church has about $800,000 set aside for a new parish hall. Currently, parish religious education classes meet across the street in two rooms of its former high school building, which closed in 1964. The remaining space is lent to Helping Hand of Greater Little Rock, the city’s largest food pantry. The church, which opened in 1903, has never had a parish hall. St. Bartholomew has about 100 families. The school building has been in place since around the late 1940’s and wasn’t designed to be a hall. It was designed to be a series of classrooms. The new hall will also be a benefit for St. Augustine Church in North Little Rock, another of the three Black parishes in the state, where Father Ngandu is also pastor. The two parishes also do not have a parish hall. On Feast Day the parishioners have been having to meet outside. Father Ngandu hopes St. Bartholomew can break ground on the new parish hall by the end of the year. It will be built on a vacant lot next to the church office and rectory.

STEWARDSHIP

As a parish, we are financially dependent on your generous weekly contributions to pay our bills and keep the lights on and our doors open and even more so during these difficulties times. So, as you plan for the weeks and months ahead, please remember your parish family in your prayer and in your financial planning.

PROCLAIM THE WONDER OF GOD

The gift of the Spirit is given freely, not according to human expectations, but according to the generosity of God. Joshua wants Moses to stop Eldad and Medad from prophesying in the camp, when they were not with the others as the spirit was bestowed on them. Moses, so close to God's mind in the matter, wishes everyone could possess the spirit of God and proclaim it to the nations.

Psalm 19 celebrates the perfection of God's law, and how it brings joy and delight. It is better than the finest gold or the sweetest honey. Moreover, God gives the wisdom of the prophets to everyone, especially the simple and lowly ones, even to children. It is the "little ones" who proclaim the wonder of God to all.

THE PRESENCE OF GOD

In all our thoughts and actions we ought to remember the presence of God, and account all lost in which we think not of God.

—St. Bernard of Clairvaux

FEAST OF FAITH

The Lord’s Prayer

The Eucharistic Prayer ends with the great “Amen,” the acclamation of assent by the assembly. Then the Communion rite begins with the Lord’s Prayer. We pray this prayer in many contexts, both inside and outside the Church’s liturgy. Here, in the context of the Mass, the Lord’s Prayer is profoundly eucharistic. When we ask for our “daily bread,” we are asking for the gift of the Eucharist. When we ask God to forgive us as we forgive others, we are seeking forgiveness and purity of heart before we approach the altar to receive the sacrament of the Lord’s Body and Blood—“so that what is holy may, in fact, be given to those who are holy” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 81).

At Mass, a prayer for peace is inserted between the prayer and the doxology. In this prayer, called the embolism, the Church asks God for freedom—freedom from sin and all anxiety and distress. We are living in an in-between time; even as we rejoice in Christ’s presence, we await his coming in joyful hope.
