Safe Haven Baby Boxes

On May 22, 2020, the now 1-year-old boy became the only child who was left at a Safe Haven Baby Box in Arkansas. The newborn was left at the Benton Fire Station, which was the first Safe Haven Baby Box location in Arkansas. The baby boy has since been adopted and is doing well. A Safe Haven Baby Box is designed to prevent illegal abandonment of newborn babies by providing a safe and anonymous way to surrender their child. Since the first Baby Box was installed in Benton, others have been installed in Rogers, Springdale, Jonesboro and Conway. The box, which is heated and air conditioned, is equipped with an alarm that alerts first responders that a baby has been surrendered. The Knights of Columbus have been raising money to have alert devices installed. The hope is that there will be a Baby Box in every population center in Arkansas.

World Mission Sunday

Next weekend we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Catholic Charities to Welcome 49 Afghan Refugees

It was announced last week that the Catholic Charities Refugee Resettlement Office will be responsible for assisting up to 49 refugees who fled Afghanistan after the U.S. withdrew and the Taliban took control of the country. A Lutheran refugee resettlement program will assist another 49 in NW Arkansas. The initial group in the United States will include 37,000 refugees moving to 46 states. The first refugees will arrive at the beginning of October. Resettlement takes about 6 to 12 weeks to complete.

Over the past 20 years, many of these refugees have worked for the U.S. military or the U.S. embassy in jobs such as interpreters. They are here legally, have the right to work, get a driver's license, serve in the military and travel and will be responsible for paying taxes. Bishop Taylor has called on us to show compassion to these people. "As Christians, we are called to do all we can to help our brothers and sisters in their time of need," he told Arkansas Catholic. "Moreover, most of us are ourselves, the descendants of immigrants who came to this country in their time of need. Having been given refuge here ourselves, at least in the person of our ancestors, we are all the more obligated to extend a welcome to immigrants today, and especially to refugees who often come here fleeing for their very lives."

There will be challenges to those who settle in central and northwest Arkansas, where the refugee resettlement programs are based. A quick way that we can help is to send a cash donation to Catholic Charities of Arkansas' Refugee Resettlement program, visit <https://bit.ly/CCArefugees> and select "refugee resettlement" in the drop-down menu.

STEWARDSHIP

As a parish, we are financially dependent on your generous weekly contributions to pay our bills and keep the lights on and our doors open and even more so during these difficult times. So, as you plan for the weeks and months ahead, please remember your parish family in your prayer and in your financial planning.

THE HUMANITY OF JESUS CHRIST

All three readings today support—each in its own way, of course—a reflection on the humanity of Jesus Christ and how that humanity played a key role in the drama of our salvation. Although not chosen specifically to coordinate with the other two readings, today's second reading does in fact carry forward the theme of Christ's humanity in a remarkable way. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews highlights the solidarity that exists between Jesus and us, precisely because in his human nature Jesus has known the same sufferings and testing that are our own experience. Because he can "sympathize with our weaknesses," we can "approach the throne of grace to receive mercy." For the author of Hebrews, the humanity of Jesus was an essential requirement for his redemptive death, as well as an invitation to us to find in Jesus someone with whom we can identify in our daily struggles

FEAST OF FAITH

Only Say the Word

The bread is broken, the banquet is prepared, and now we are invited to the feast. Once more the priest holds the host, now broken, for us to see, and invites us to behold the one “who takes away the sins of the world.” Truly blessed and happy are those invited to this meal, which is a foretaste of the heavenly banquet, the supper of the Lamb (Revelation 19:19). We respond to this invitation with a prayer to the Lord: we acknowledge that we are not worthy, but at the same time we are confident that the One who comes to us can heal us, body and soul. This prayer echoes the story of the centurion in Luke’s Gospel. The centurion, a Gentile, asks healing for his servant, but does not consider himself worthy to have Jesus come under his roof—he believes that Jesus can heal his servant with a word, without even seeing him. Jesus is amazed at his faith. It is the same for us. We believe that Jesus speaks to us, comes to us, dwells with us, even though we neither hear his voice nor see his face.
