“St. Elizabeth, I’m Hungry for Pizza” supper!!

Parish Life and the Knights of Columbus are cosponsoring this year’s celebration of the feast day of our patroness, St. Elizabeth of Hungary. Please join us Tuesday, November 16, at the Parish Hall. Mass will begin at 5:00 with supper following. The meal includes Pizzas by Pizza Hut, salad, homemade desserts, beer, pop and tea. Reservations are necessary, so be sure and sign up on the sign up posters in the rotunda at the Church or the lobby at the Parish Center. See you there!

BELL TOWER "GLOWS" AT NIGHT

Thanks to funding by the Gift Shop and hard work by Mike Godfrey, Ted Meyer, and Gary Finkeldei, the St. Elizabeth Church Bell Tower is once again glowing at night. New light fixtures inside and outside the tower were installed recently and now illuminate the beautiful structure during the nighttime hours. It has been several years since the inside of the tower had working lights and many years since an outside fixture hung on the tower. Drive by in the evening and look how lovely the tower is now. Thanks everyone!!

The 2021 Scholarship Appeal

This weekend is the kickoff of the 2021 Catholic Schools of Arkansas Scholarship Appeal. The 2020 Scholarship Appeal provided $72,596 in scholarship for 79 students in 11 Catholic schools throughout the state. Donations came from over 241 individuals from parishes across the state. Many of those parishes do not have a parish school. Families who qualify are granted assistance through Parish subsidies, school fundraising, foundations and individual donors. However, even with this financial support, a need still exists for more tuition aid. This year our calculated need is $526,505. Please help us by donating to the Arkansas Catholic Schools Scholarship Appeal. Every dollar received from donations will be used to aid those in need of financial assistance. In a thank-you note, a grateful parents wrote, “I can’t begin to put into words what this gift meant to my family. I attended Catholic school and it was such a positive experience. I have always envisioned my children attending as well. When our family experienced a life altering event I was not sure if I would be able to afford to keep them at our Catholic school. With the blessings of such generous donors, I did not have to make that difficult decision. This gives my children the opportunity to flourish in such an amazing and supportive school home. That to me is invaluable. From the bottom of my heart, thank you.” Please support this fund and give the gift that lasts a lifetime and beyond.

STEWARDSHIP

As a parish, we are financially dependent on your generous weekly contributions to pay our bills and keep the lights on and our doors open and even more so during these difficulties times. So, as you plan for the weeks and months ahead, please remember your parish family in your prayer and in your financial planning.

GOD'S REIGN

By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign present and to come.

FEAST OF FAITH

Blessing and Dismissal

At the beginning of Mass, the priest made the sign of the cross with us. At the conclusion of Mass, he makes the sign of the cross over us, a sign of blessing. We are then dismissed—not just let out, but sent forth with a mission “to love and serve the Lord.” Just as Jesus blessed his disciples as he ascended to heaven, so this leave-taking is joined to a blessing, a prayer for God’s continuing protection. As we leave the church, we bear the invisible sign of the Master whom we follow. In the words of an ancient letter to Diognetus, “Christians are indistinguishable from other [people] either by nationality, language, or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow an outlandish way of life. . . . And yet, there is something extraordinary about their lives” (Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. II, p. 840). We are ordinary people sent forth to live extraordinary lives, lives like Christ’s own life—pouring ourselves out for others in prayer, service, and love.
